Mrs. Charles T. Butler

She Is Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Ryerson Todd, of Bangor, Me.; He Is

Marriage to Lorillard S. Tailer Is Set for April 6

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Ryerson Todd, of angor, Me., announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Stella Todd. o Gilbert Curtis Demorest, son of Mr. to Gilbert Curtis Demorest, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Curtiss Demorest, of this city. Miss Todd's father is president of the Bangor & Arcostook Railroad. During the war he served as regional director of the New England Wiss Todd is a graduate of the Curtis J. Balliet, or this city-to-day in the chantry of St. Thomas's Church. The ceremony will be followed by a reception at the Hotel St. Regis. roads. Miss Todd is a graduate of iroads. Miss foud is a graduate of Providence. Mr. Demorest is a graduate of Princeton, class of 17. In the spring of that year he went to France with the first Princeton unit as a volunteer in the American Field Ambulance Service. He net Miss Todd on his return, a year

The last for this season of the Junior

PUTNAM BOOKS AND AUTHORS

A man can do without books as or beauty—but is he the man he might be?

We grieve to see that a certain illustrious contemporary is advertising autographs to sell his books. No, Siree—we will not steep to such tactics. Like a certain famous brand of tebacco, we give no couponsthe value's all in the book.

As for instance The Mirrors of Downing Street (but February 11th), a semarkable study of living men who are controlling the world of today.

The above resolution however toes not prevent us from making the following offer: If the lady in the lavender limousine, caught in the traffic jam at at 12:01 of last Thursday-the one in the sables with the toy Pom at her breast, we meanwill send us her address we will mail her a free copy of RADI-ANT MOTHERHOOD (Also out Feb. 11th).

Mr. Belasco tells us that he has spent 150,000 on DEBURAU, dollars! Not words. It is Deburau is a beautiful play on the stage.

Deburau is even more heautiful when read at your

BLACK and YELLOW

"E. K. Means

Means," those inof the black man chatted at lunchwith Capt. Ach-med Abdullah, author of those dramatic tales of the yellow man.

"The Honorable Gentleman." 12 The orgument sounded like a war wi tengs, not of tongues. Said E. K.

"The black man has the white man and the yellow faded. No Cau-Casian can read the negro as he can the Caucasian."

"You are wrong," said Achmed bullah, "in mind-reading the cat supreme. The feline can forewell your least motion before the message from the brain reaches the iband-or the boot."

But Mr. E. K. Means and Capt. Abfullah were both wrong. E. K. Means gends the black, Abdullah the yellow man, like a book, and both have put them Try further E. K. Means and The Honorable Gentleman

Apropos of the Most Mooted Question In 1846 Walt Whitman wrote:

We generally expect a great deal too much of law. After all, government does not exercise anything like the influence, for good, for evil, that have are apt to imagine. We have grown in the way of resting on it to grown in the way of resting on it to do many things which ought to be done by individuals."

No, you do not know Whitman boroughly until you have read his Gathering of the Forces." 1846! is remarkable how so rich a mine ould lay so long undiscovered. opened now in THE GATHER-

"ENTER MADAME" She still treads the boards, a seductive simoon, a winning Whirlwind, a charming cyclone Press agents are privileged to copy). But she is really all . that. And after wil you can get the full of Gilda Va-"resi's play

Note: To all who believe that only perilous pull wins success on the stage read Varesi's ftory that introduces the book.

Its the last line we but repeat, Watch for The Mirrors of Downing

Out February eleventh!

R. G. A. G. P. P. Assembly dances took place last night in the ballroom of the Ritz-Carlton. Several small dinners were given before the dance, and the guests on their arrival at the Ritz were received by the following members of the committeer Mrs. Richard C. Colt. Mrs. Walter R. James. Mr. James Gore King, Mrs. Murray Witherbee Dodge and Mrs. Murray Witherbee Dodge and Mrs. Murray Witherbee Dodge and Mrs. Justice Roger A. Pryor, will sail for Europe Tuesday. They will remain abroad until late in the spring.

Miss Marion Kerr, daughter of Mrs. M. K. Kerr, of the Hotel Chatham, sailed for Europe on Thursday with Dr. and Mrs. J. Henry Lancashire and Miss Lancashire.

of Bangor, Me.; He Is
Son of W. C. Demorest

Last Assembly Hop Held

Dinners were given last night by Mrs. Frank H. Potter at her home, 150
East Seventy-second Street; Mrs. Walter T. Rosen at her house, 35 West
Fifty-fourth Street, and Mrs. Hamilton
Fish Armstrong, Mrs. Armstrong afterward took her guests to the dance of the Bachelors at the Hotel Vanderbilt.

The marriage of Miss Catherine Harding, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Horace Harding, to Lorillard Suffern Tailer, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. Suffern Tailer, takes place on April 6. The engagement was announced last autumn.

Mrs. Nellie Howell de Rivas, widow of José Cerillo de Rivas and daughter of Mrs. Josiah Pierson Howell, will be married to Benjamin Woolsey Rogers to-day in the Church of the Beloved

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Hennen Morris will give a dance to-night at their home, 19 East Seventieth Street, for their daughter, Miss Louise Morris. The dance will be preceded by a numer of dinners.

Clarence H. Mackay gives a small

Heywood Broun

We recommend

HUNGRY HEARTS

By Anzia Yezierska

"Let no man o woman dare to speak or write on immigration that has not read 'Hungry Hearts.' I have laughed and cried over it. And I lay it down a bit awed, as if I had seen an alien people's soul."-Doctor Frank Crane.

$1.90 at all

Houghton Mifflin Co. 16 E. 40th St., N. Y.

SECRET SERVICE

By William Nelson Taft

A BOOKFUL of mystery stories based on real tases solved by Government agents. Not a full movement agents. Not a full movement own severs service men, except that this author has told these true takes with all the sullor has told these true takes with all the soll of Coom Boyle or Gaborian. Strangelos, lots of thrills and solutions you could never ruess, and, best of all, they've happened.

HARPER & BROS., NEW YORK Est. 1817. "104 YEARS OF GOOD BOOKS"

The New York Tribune says: "The Next Corner

KATE JORDAN

stands out as a successful novel on account of the ecstatic sweep of its style, its warm, vital figures and its cleverly conceived plot."

SECOND LARGE PRINTING $2.00 net. At all Booksellers

LITTLE, BROWN & CO. Publishers, Boston

$1.90

Heywood Broun:

"Hulbert Footner's 'The Owl Taxi', published by Doran, is easily the best of recent mystery yarns."

At all Booksellers

Read BLASCO IBANEZ' The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse

before the wonderful screen pictures of this book are released. $2.00. Obtainable at any book-store or may be had direct from E. P. Dutton & Co., 681 5th Ave., N. Y.

Miss Marion Kerr, daughter of Mrs. M. K. Kerr, of the Hotel Chatham, sailed for Europe on Thursday with Dr. and Mrs. J. Henry Lancashire and Miss Lancashire.

Mr. and Mrs. William Fellowes Morgan are in town for a few days from their country place at Mount Kisco, and are at the Hotel Belmont.

Mrs. John Turner Atterbury is at Aiken, S. C., for the remainder of the winter.

Mrs. Henry Wise Miller Is Guest at Palm Beach

Many Other New Yorkers Are Entertained Before Dinner-Dance at the Everglades Club

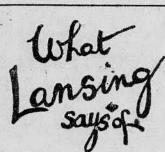

Special Dispatch to The Tribune
PALM BEACH, Fls., Feb. 4.—Mrs. Norman De R. Whitehouse, of the Everglades Club, has as her guests Mrs. Henry Wise Miller, Dr. Pearce Bailey and Bertram De N. Cruger, of New York. Mr. Whitehouse has gone to New York for a short stay.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pierce Gutheridge have been joined by Mr. and Mrs. Albert Spalding at the Everglades Club, where they will remain a

Among those giving dinners preceding the dinner-dance last night at the Everglades Club were Mr. and Mrs. Hugh De L. Willoughby jr., Mr. and Mrs. James King Clarke, Mr. and Mrs. Jackson Kempner and Mrs. Louis J. Treadwell. The last named entertained Mr. and Mrs. Edward Crozer, Yale Dolan and Reginald Brooks. Mrs. Treadwell gave a tea yesterday for Miss Caroline Von H. Bean, the New York portrait painter, who is passing the winter here.

Mrs. Charles H. Pillsbury had William G. Reddick, William G. G. Sweatt, Clara Harrington and Marion MacLean

for luncheon at the Everglades Club.
Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Peabody and Jesse L. Eddy also entertained.
Arrivals at The Breakers are Mrs.
William C. Robinson, the Misses Mary and Althea Robinson and Mrs. John H.
Ricketson ir. of Pittshurgh: Norway

Why he didn't want the Paris - they differed about Shantung—he wanted the conferences to be made public.

A Momentous Book Written by ROBERT LANSING Himself. From His Daily Diaries.

The first from the pen of a Peace Com-missioner - READ IT-before The League comes up in Congress again

 These bookstores are receiving orders for it now in advance. The book will be delivered on publication day, March 25th. Mail the coupon to the shop nearest you. These shops are all conducted by Doubleday Page

Book Shop Co. Lord & Taylor Book Shop 5th Ave. at 35th St. New York

Liberty Tower Book Shop
55 Liberty Street, New York. Penn. Terminal Book Shop Arcade, 7th Ave., at 32nd St., N.Y

Please send me on publication day THE PEACE NEGOTIATIONS By Robert Lansing Cloth, $3.60

Check for $3.00 enclosed herewith, novel in America.

1 West 47th Street

of "Main Streets" everywhere.

and Althea Robinson and Mrs. John H. Ricketson jr., of Pittsburgh; Norman E. Mack, of Buffalo; B. C. Bensinger, of Chicago, joining Mrs. Bensinger, and Dr. and Mrs. Walton Hopkins, of Baltimore, for a month's stay. At the Poinciana are Mr. and Mrs. G. Maurice Heckscher, of New York: Professor Samuel Varden Church, of the Carnegie Foundation, Pittsburgh, and Mrs. Church; Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Northwood and child, of Toronto. Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Lewis, of St. Augustine, Mr. and Mrs. Thornton Lewis, of White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., and Colonel Owen Kenan had lunch in the garden grill, after which the Lewis party started by automobile for Miami, and will proceed on Sunday to Key West. To Strains of 'Beautiful Ohio'

Mrs. Harding Bows Acknowledgment From Hippo-

For the first time since her arrival gathered at the entrance as she in New York Mrs. Warren G. Harding stepped into her car. was yesteday publicly recognized and in every corner of the house to get a glimpse of the wife of the Presidentelect. The orchestra, conducted by Raymond Hubbell, of Urbana, Ohio, then played "The End of a Perfect their discovery the sake of the advertisement it would give them have found their things remorselessly returned.

She has taken a firm stand on matters welsting to dress and knows exactly

Since it was Orphans' Day at the Hippodrome, Mrs. Harding gave some eighty youngsters boxes of candy. They came from New Jersey and were the The authority of the Came from New Jersey and were the The authority of the Came from New Jersey and were the The authority of the Came from New Jersey and were the The authority of the Came from New Jersey and were the New Jersey and New Jersey and New Jersey and New Jers came from New Jersey and were the guests of the Children's Friends' Society. She left the theater, declaring that the hadren and delayed the curtain ten minutes with their cheers.

An invitation from Alice

Carlton since her arrival last Sunday.
On neither of the previous occasions was she recognized. She saw "Sally" at the New Amsterdam Theater Tuesday night and on Thursday evening she visited an aunt at the Hotel Seymour. But she had no sooner left the elevator yesterday than word got around as to her identity and a crowd

New York

"Main Street"

Sinclair Lewis has written the best-selling

Because Gopher Prairie, Minn., is America.

Because its "Main Street" is the continuation

Because the dialogue is so real that you will pester your family with, "Here, just listen to Because every one is saying, "Have you read it?" and its scene, its people, its title and its phrases have already entered into daily life and Fifteenth large printing. $2.00, wherever books are sold

Harcourt, Brace & Company

Was yesteday publicly recognized and acclaimed. A capacity matinee audiacclaimed. A capacity matinee audiacclaimed at the Hippodrome rose to its feet and cheesed enthusiastically for the future mistress of the White House as the spotlight was turned upon her in Charles Dillingham's box. She rose to her feet and bowed in all directions while the orchestra played "Beautiful Ohio" and a chorus of girls sang.

This was the culmination of a pretty scene which took place during the international pageant in the first act. As the countries grouped themselves in the countries grouped themselves in a black children peering inquiringly at her she stopped for a moment and waved to them. She was the country by her of calvary Cemtery.

Waves to Children

Noticing some children peering inquiringly at her she stopped for a moment and waved to them. She was the country by her of call, "RG," She was the widow of Daniel Hennessy, also an old time operator.

Street and Amsterdam Avenue.

Street and Amsterda

the countries grouped themselves in the Hall of Commerce setting Miss Madge Loomis, clad in cloth of gold and representing America, detached stated for the Hippodrome about 3 that the third states in the Hall of Commerce setting Miss days, her fittings began early yesterdays, her fittings began early yesterdays. The Hippodrome about 3 that the Hip

Refuses Gowns as Gifts

Day," which is one of Mrs. Harding's relating to dress and knows exactly what she wants.

that she had enjoyed every minute of the performance and that she was particularly gratified over the tribute paid her by representatives of her native state.

This was only the third time Mrs. Harding had left her suite at the Ritz-Carlton since her arrival last Sunday.

Dinner to Michael McCarthy

Michael J. McCarthy, Deputy Register of New York County, will be given a testimonial dinner at the Hotel Commodore on Monday night, it was announced by friends yesterday. According to Eugene A. Johnson, chairman of the dinner committee, more than 1,000 persons will attend.

The following are members of comnittees arranging the affair: James E. Donegan, Peter J. Brady, John F. Curry, William T. Collins, Charles A. Harnott, Samuel Marx, L. J. O'Reilly, Miss Beatrice Gilmartin, Miss Belle Norton, Mrs. H. P. Sinnott, Miss Eleanor R. Kissane,

OSWALD SPEIR

Oswald Speir, of 26 Gramercy Parkt executive secretary of the National Terra Cotta Society, died suddenly on the Twentieth Century Limited at 6 o'clock Wednesday night. He was on o'clock Wednesday night. He was on the way to Chicago on business. Acute indigestion caused death.

Mr. Speir was a pioneer in the terra cotta industry. He was with the Perth Amboy Terra Cotta Company here from the end of his school days until 1908, when he went to Los Angeles and became manager of the Pacific Coast Terac Cotta Manufacturars. Cladding Mc.

ROBERT B. DIXON

BALTIMORE, Feb. 4.—Robert B. Dixon, eighty-seven years old, wealthy and a veteran Republican leader on the eastern shore of Maryland, died to-day at his country home, North Bend, on Miles River. He was a descendant of the founders of the Dixon family in America, who came from England in 1680. Mr. Dixon was head of the firm of R. B. Dixon & Co., coal and lumber dealers; president of the Easton National Bank, president of the Easton Furniture Manufacturing Company and a director in numerous financial institutions in Baltimore City. He had represented his county in the State Senate and lower house.

Exhibition of Eighteenth Century Porce fain, French Art Gallery, 559 Fifth Avenue, 559 Fifth Avenue, 169 Fighth Avenue, 169 Fighth

Senate and lower house.

He is survived by the following children: James Dixon, president of the Easton National Bank; William A. Dixon, of Bartlett, Dixon & Co., Baltimore; Mary G., wife of Colonel J. Kemp Bartlett, Baltimore; Roberta B., wife of United States Attorney General A. Mitchell Palmer, Washington; Florence, wife of Frederick A. Levering.

Luncheon of the Lawyers Club, 115 Broadway.

Luncheon of the Lawyers Club, 115 Broadway.

Luncheon of the Lawyers Club, 115 Broadway.

William Star Meyers on "A Possible International Policy" under the auspices of the Marquette Club, Hotel Plaza, 2:15 oflictor.

NIGHT

Dinner, and dance of the Far Western Travelers' Association, Hotel Astor, 5 of George Farnham.

herself and made her way to the box containing Mrs Harding, Mrs. Harry S. New and Mrs. E. B. McLean.

Bouquet of Carnations

She carried a vivid bouquet of crimson carnations, the flower of Ohio. It was the offering of the forty members of the cast qf "Good Times" who were born in the State of Ohio.

Mrs. Harding smilingly acknowledged it with a few words, while 5,000 spectators applauded and necks were craned in every corner of the house to get as the second second in the second second by the Rev. W. John Murray, at 1 Westcided to recommend expulsion. Heshared in the prize offered by the Gernan Schiller Society for the best play vritten in 1904.

JABEZ C. GILBERT

PLAINFIELD. N. J., Feb. 4.—Jabez
C. Gilbert, seventy-three years old. a veteran New York bond dealer, diedhere last night of apoplexy. He had lived in Plainfield for twenty years
and was a brother of former Mayor
Alexander Gilbegt. He is survived also by his wife and a sister, Mrs. George Heese, of South Orange. Mr. Gilbert
was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs.
Thomas Gilbert, of New Haven.

MARY LOVELAND DOWD

Mary Loveland Dowd, wife of Colomel Heman Dowd, vice-president of the fequitable Trust Company, died sudien'l yesterday at Winter Park, Fla., from apoplexy. She was born in Tyner, Pa., in 1856, a daughter of the late Thomas B, Loveland. Two daughlers and two sons survive.

by the Rev. W. John Murray, at 1 West form Avok York City, on Friday, Febtate, York City, on Friday, Febtoary 4, 1921.

DEATHS

SHEA—On February 2, Michael J, beloved husband of the late Ellen Shea (neCisten) and obving father of Edward Mife of Charles D. Anderson and metred wife of Charles D. Anderson and metred
of Charles D. Anderson and metred
wife of Charles D. Anderson and metred
of Charles D. Anderson and metred
wife of Charles D. Anderson and metred
of Charles D. Anderson and metred
wife of Charles D. Anderson and metred
by February 2, 1921 and the State of Colomer late home. 13 Webster Place, Brooklyn, Saturday, February 2, 1930 p. m.

APPEL—John, at his horse, 1554 Greene
av., Brooklyn, and Thursday, February 2, 1921. Burfai Rockland, Me
SPEIR—Suddenly, February 2, 1921. Burfai Rockland, Me
SPEIR—Suddenly, February 2, 1921. Burfai Rockland, Me
SPEIR—Suddenly, February 2, 1921.

BERLIK-Saude R. Anner
Schleren do the late Ellen Shea (neCisten) and loving father of Bezer
Mary E. And Hannah A. Shea. Church
Wife of Charles D. Anderson and metred
wife of Charles D. Anderson and metred
wife of Charles D. Anderson and metred
wife of JABEZ C. GILBERT
PLAINFIELD, N. J., Feb. 4.—Jabez
C. Gilbert, seventy-three years old, a veteran New York bond dealer, died here last night of apoplexy. He had lived in Plainfield for twenty years
and was a brother of former Mayor
Alexander Gilbegt. He is survived also
by his wife and a sister, Mrs. George Heese, of South Orange. Mr. Gilbert
was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs.
Thomas Gilbert, of New Haven. Thomas Gilbert, of New Haven.

ALBERT E. SCOTT Albert E. Scott, seventy-eight years old, prominent in organizations of

Mary Roberts RINEHART

A Poor Wise Man

Yamanaka Collection

Gen. Thomas McGregor,
Spanish War Veteran, Dies
Commanded Division Whose Officers Included Theodore Roosevelt and Leonard Wood
BENICIA, Calif., Feb. 4.—Brigadier General Thomas McGregor, who went to Cuba a 9th Cavalry colonel and returned from the Spanish-American War in command of a division whose officers included Theodore Roosevelt and Leonard Wood, died here to-day, His funeral will be held next week at the Presidio of San Francisco.

General McGregor was eighty-four years old, and was a veteran of a dozen Indian campaigns, the Civil and Spanish-American wars and the Boxer rebellion in Ching. He averged in him home at 308 West 137th Street, safter a lingering illness. Funeral services will be held to-morrow after noon at his home.

Mr. Scott retired a year ago after many years in the listerior decorating business. In the Civil War he served as a licutenant and at the Battle of Bull Run was wounded while in command of a battery of the 2d New York Heavy Field Artillery, which he had organized. It had been a member of the Army of the Potomac, past commander of Alexander Hamilton Post, G. A. R., No. 182, and an honorary member of the Westchester County Association of Civil War Veterans and the Harlem Patriotic Leagus. Mrs. Elia B. Scott, his widow, survives him.

dozen Indian campaigns, the Civil and Spanish-American wars and the Boxer rebellion in Chins. He arrived in California in 1853, engaged in mining, entered the Civil War a second lieutenant and later fought Indians in Idaho, New Mexico and Arizona. In 1901 he retired with the rank of brigadier general. Five children survive him. Abrahamson's oil portrait of former ra Cotta Manufacturers, Gladding, Mc-Bean & Co.

Last June Mr. Speir returned to New

Last June Mr. Speir returned to New York to become secretary of the National Terra Cotta Society and to promote the industry in a general way. He belonged to the American Institute of Architects, the New York Academy of Sciences and the American Ceramic Society, and his clubs were the Faculty, University of California, Jonathan, Los Angeles, Cuyamaca, of San Diego, and National Arts, of New York.

He is survived by his wife and four children, Oswald Speir jr., Mrs. Paul Pentlagd, Godfrey and Mary. The funeral will be held at St. Agnes Chapel at 2:30 o'clock to-day.

DONNOTE B. NEWOY.

ence, wife of Frederick A. Lever Washington, and Mrs. William Norris.

Nashington, and Mrs. William T.

MRS. SOPHIA R. HENNESSY

NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y., Feb. 4.— Irs. Sophia Rogers Hennessy, seventyix years old, one of the first women f the country to take up telegraph perating, died here to-day of heart isease. She was born in Elbridge,
I. Y., and held positions as operator in New York City for many years.

Trom 1879 to 1913 she was manager
f the, New York Central telegraph
ffices in this city and was retired on
ension. She was known to telegraph
ffices in this city and was retired on
ension. She was known to telegraph
ffices in this city and was retired on
ension. She was known to telegraph
ffices in this city and was retired on
ension. She was known to telegraph
ffices in this city and was retired on
ension. She was known to telegraph
ffices in this city and was retired on
ension. She was known to telegraph
ffices in this city and was retired on
ension. She was known to telegraph
ffices in this city and was retired on
ension. She was known to telegraph
ffices in this city and was retired on
ension. She was known to telegraph
ffices in this city and was retired on
ension. She was known to telegraph
ffices in this city and was retired on
ension. She was known to telegraph
ffices in this city and was retired on
ension. She was known to telegraph
ffices in this city and was retired on
ension. She was known to telegraph
ffices in this city and was retired on
ension. She was known to telegraph
ffices in this city and was retired on
ension. She was known to telegraph
ffices in this city and was retired on
ension. She was known to telegraph
ffices in this city and was retired on
ension. She was known to telegraph
ffices in this city and was retired on
ension. She was known to telegraph
ffices in this city and was retired on
ension. She was known to telegraph
ffices in this city and was retired on
ension. She was known to telegraph
ffices in this city and was retired on
ension. She was known to telegraph
ffices in this city and was retired on
ension. She was known to telegraph
ffices in drome Box, While Show Halts and Girls Present Her With Bouquet of Crimson Carnations of the country to take up telegraph operating, died here to-day of heart disease. She was born in Elbridge, N. Y., and field positions as operator in New York City for many years. From 1870 to 1913 she was manager of the New York Central telegraph offices in this city and was retired on pension. She was known to telegraph offices in this city and was retired on pension. She was known to telegraph offices in this city and was retired on pension. She was known to telegraph offices in this city and was retired on pension. She was known to telegraph offices in this city and was retired on pension. She was known to telegraph offices in this city and was retired on pension.

ENGAGEMENTS

COWPERTHWAIT-STEWART beth M. Stewart, daughter of the late Mr. John Baxter Stawart and Mrs. Sarah A. Stewart, to J. Howard Cowperthwait, by the Rev. W. John Murray, at 1 West e4th st., New York City, on Friday, Feb-ruary 4, 1921.

Mary Loveland Dowd, wife or Colo-nel Heman Dowd, vice-president of the Equitable Trust Company, died sud-denly yesterday at Winter Park, Fla., from apoplexy. She was born in Tyner, Pa., in 1855, a daughter of the late Thomas B. Loveland. Two daughters and two sons survive.

Madison Square South, New York THE IMPORTANT ITEMS OF THE GRAND

AMERICAN ART ASSOCIATION, Managers Madison Sq. South, Entrance 6 E. 23d Street, New York

Going On To-day

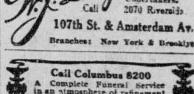

Wisconsin Senate Fixes Price in Dealing With New York Artist MADISON, Wis., Feb. 4.-The State Senate to-day decided that Christian

Governor Philipp, hung on the wall of the chamber while Senators made up their minds about the artist's $10,000 estimate of the picture's value, was worth only $1,500 to the commonwealth. In fixing this value, Senators recalled that $1,500 was the maximum amount the state ever had paid for such a HUCKINGS Eleanor Whitfield Huckings widow of Edwin Huckings, fell asleen February S, in her Sist year. Funeral service at the home of her daughter Mrs. George D. Perguson, 274 North Fulton av. Mount Vernon, N. Y., on Sunday, February S, at 3 o'clock. Aquarium; admission free.

Zoologicai Park; admission free.
Van Cortlandt Park; admission free.
Admirai William S. Benson, Frank A. Vanderlip and William Averell Harriman Will discuss "The Merchant Marlne" at a luncheon of the National Republican Club, 54 West Fortisth Street, I o'clock, Luncheon of the Municipal Art Society, Hotel Astor, I o'clock.
Lecture by Professor Earl Benjamin on "Marketing Poultry Products." Academy of Music, Brooklyn, 4 o'clock.
Exhibition of Eighteenth Century Porcefain, French Art Gallery, 599 Fifth Avenue, 10 to 6 o'clock.

at 3 o'clock.

HUNT—On February 4, Emily C., faughter of the late William S. and Magdalene Schureman Hunt, in her 82d year Funeral service at the residence of her sister. Mrs. A. M. Cudner, 340 West 23d st., on Sunday, February 6, at 4 p. m. Burlal at New Rochelle.

Broadway at 66th St. John W. Lyon State Est'd. Recommical bride) and father of Teresa Duhy. Fineral from his late residence, 212 has son as a constant of the state of bell), B'way, 56th st., February 5, 3 p. m.

DEATHS

GEORGE.—On Wednesday, February 2
Samuel D., beloyed husband of Sareh
George (nee Garrison), in his 62d year Funcal services will be held at his late residence, 633 Macon st., Brooklya, on Saturday, February 5, at 4 p. m.

GH.BERT.—At Plainfield, N. J., suddenly, on Thursday, February 2, 7921, Janes
C. Gilbert, husband of Eila M. Gilbert, Services at his residence, 218 West 5th st., Plainfield, N. J., on Sunday, Febguary 6, at 2:15 p. m. Automobiles will be in waiting at the Plainfield station on arrival of the 2 o'clock train from foot of Liberty st., New York City
(C. R. R. of N. J.). Interment private GILL—On Thursday, February 3, 1921, at

HODGES—Suddenly, on February 2, 1921 Ida H. wife of John W. Hodges. Fu neral from her late home, 558 Wee 181st at., on Saturday, February 5, 1921 at 2 o'clock.

the family.

AUNHARDT—Of pneumonia, at Green wich, Conn., February S. 1921, Georg Farnham ir., son of George Farnham and Katharine Flass Kunhardt, aged 16 months. Funeral private.

LANE—On February 2, 1921, John, be loved husband of Ellianbeth Lane (new Wilson). Funeral from his late residence, 401 East 135th st., Saturday, a. n. Requiem mass at St. Jerome Church Interment St. Raymond's Cemetery.

ment Calvary Cemetery.

M'CUE—On Thursday, Pebruary 2, at he residence, 2960 Jerome av., Catherine beloved wife of Michael and mother c. Winnefred and Joseph. Funeral Saturday, 19:20 a. m.; thence to the Church of St. Philip Nerl, where mass of reculem will be offered for the repose of her soul. Interment St. Raymond's.

MEVOV—At Stamford Conn. or Wedner. Fourth Avenue.
Charles Schwab, by Professor J. G. Carter Troop, Ph. D., at Townsend Harris
Hall, College City of New Yprk, 138th
Street and Amsterdam Avenue.
Proper Development of Land, by F. G.
Randall, at Y. M. C. A., Harlem Branch,
5 West 125th Street. Motion pictures.

uay February 5. Interment private.

RIORDAN—On February 2, 1921, John F.

Riordan, beloved husband of Mary Riordan (nee Flanagan). Funeral from his late residence, 690 West 192d st. Saturday, February 5, 9,230 a.m. Requien mass at Church of St. Elizabeth, 187th st. and Broadway. Interment Gates of Heaven Cemetery.

THE WOODLAWN CEMETERY 3d St. By Harlem Train and by Trolley, Lots of small size for sale. Office 20 East 224 St. N Y.

HEMBICK—On Wednesday, February 1, 1921, Frank G. Hemrick, beloved husband of May Hemrick and son of Mary Hemrick. Fueral on Saturday from his late residence, 1884 Gutes av. Brooklyn, Solemn requiem mass 16 a.m., Church of Nativity.

HEDSTRON-WARREN Mr. and Mrs.
Frank Dale Warren of Plainfield, N. J., announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Mary Warren, to Mr.
Eric L. Hedstrom, son of Mr. and Mrs.
Arthur E. Hedstrom, of Buffalo, N. Y.

Atthur E. Hedstrom, of Buffalo, N. Y.

Broklyn, at 2:30 p. m. Saturday, Pebruary 2, 1921. John F.

both M., cidest daughter of the late Charles T. and Phebe M. Bunting.
Services private.

CONNERS—Jane, on February 2. THE FUNERAL CHURCH (Frank E. Campbell), B'way, 66th st., February 3. 1 Puneral Services of Grace A. Thatcher, at Morristown, N. J., on Thuraday, February 3. 1921. Funeral from his late residence, 7 Olyphant Park, Saturday, February 5. at 4 o'clock, Please omit flowers.

CORNELL—Wilson G. Special notice. Funeral services will be heid at Russell Sage Memorial Church, Far Rockaway, 11 a. m., February 5. instead of at his late residence.

DITMARS—On Wednesday, February 2. 1921, Hiley S., beloved husband of Kathryn T. Ditmars (nee Gillespie). Funeral from his late residence, 355 West 135th st., Saturday, at 2:30 a. m., Solema requiem mass, at Annuncistion Church, Convent av. and 131st st., at 10 a. m. Interment St. Raymond's Cemetery.

DOWD—Suddenly, on February 4, at Winter Park, Fls., Mary Loveland, beloved wife of Colonel Heman Dowd, in her 65th year. Notice of funeral later.

DRISCOLL—On February 2, 1921, at his residence, 134 8th at., Brocklyn, Dennis J. Driscoll, reluiem mass at St. Thomas Aquinas's Church, 3th at and 4th av., Monday, at 7:30 a. m. Interment Holy Cross Cemetery.

DUHY—On February 3, 1321, William H., beloved husband of Elia Duhy (nee Gillespier). The Woodland Colone Colone Heman Dowd, in her 65th year, Notice of funeral later.

The Woodland Church of the late Elizabeth A. Driscoll, reluiem mass at St. Thomas Aquinas's Church, 3th at and 4th av., Monday, at 7:30 a. m. Interment Holy Cross Cemetery.

DUHY—On February 3, 1321, William H., beloved husband of Elia Duhy (nee Gill). Call Columbus 8200 Complete Funeral Service an atmosphere of refinement "The best costs no more."

DUNY-On February 8, 1921, William H., beloved husband of Elia Duhy (nee G)l'-

a. m.; thence to Mount Zion Cemetery. Kindly omit flowers.

RURGESS—Dr. Gordon H., Feb. 3. THE FUNERAL CHURCH (Frank E. Campbell), B'way, 65th st., Feb. 5. 2 p. m.

RURT—At the Homeopathic Hospital, Albany, on Wedneaday, February 5, 1921, George Noyes Burt. in the 75th year of his age. Interment at Oswero, N. Y.

BURT—Minnis Estelle Davis, widow of James Francis Burt. Funeral services at the residence of her brother, Henry K. Davis, 2471 Devoe Terrace, Bronx. Sunday evening, February 5, at 5 o'clock. Interment at convenience of family.

BUTLIER—Suddenly, on Tuesday February 5, with solenn requiem mass at St. Stephen's Church at 10 a. m. Automobile cortege. Interment Holy Cross Cemetery.

BUNTING—Second month, fourth, Elizabeth M., eidest daughter of the late Charles T. and Phebe M. Bunting.

Services private.

CONNERS—Jane, on February 3. THE FUNERAL CHURCH (Frank E. Campber) 6, at 10 o clock.